4.HISTORY

The Leo Club program was founded on December 5, 1957, at Abington High School in Pennsylvania, USA. It was initiated by Coach Jim Graver as a project of the Glenside Lions Club to encourage leadership, volunteerism, and community service among youth. Initially, LEO stood for Leadership, Equality, Opportunity, but it was later redefined as Leadership, Experience, Opportunity to better reflect its purpose. In 1967, Lions Clubs International officially adopted Leo Clubs as their youth development program, expanding it globally.

Leoism was introduced to Sri Lanka in 1969, making Sri Lanka the third country in the world to start Leo Clubs. The first club formed was the Leo Club of Wattala, sponsored by the Lions Club of Wattala. Since then, Leoism grew rapidly across the country, with many youth joining to serve their communities while developing leadership and teamwork skills.

Initially, Sri Lanka had a single Leo District called 306. Due to the increase in the number of clubs and members, it was restructured in 1991/1992 into two sub-districts: 306 A and 306 B, for better administration and growth. Further restructuring took place in 1994/1995, forming six sub-districts: 306 A1, A2, B1, and B2, C1 and C2, creating six sub-districts in total under the Leo Multiple 306 Srilanka and Maldives. This structure allowed better coordination and leadership development opportunities throughout the island.

In the Leoistic year 2025/2026, Leo Multiple District 306 underwent another major restructuring to accommodate the continuous growth of Leoism in Sri Lanka. The existing six sub-districts were divided into twelve new districts, named D1, D2, D3, D4, D5, D6, D7, D8, D9, D10, D11, and D12. This historic change aims to strengthen administration, increase opportunities for youth leadership, and ensure the Leo movement continues to grow effectively across all regions of Sri Lanka.

As Leos of District 306 D3, we will continue to rise with passion and dedication, serving our community with love, unity, and the true spirit of Leoism.

6.HISTORY OF LEO CLUB OF NEGOMBO CATAMARAN

The Leo Club of Negombo Catamaran was proudly established under the sponsorship of the Lions Club of Negombo Catamaran. This inspiring initiative was led by Lion Nilesh Alston, whose vision and dedication brought together a group of enthusiastic youth from The Bridge Education Institute. Guided by his leadership, the club was officially formed on August 9th 2019 with 27 passionate charter members

From its very inception, the club demonstrated remarkable strength and unity. Under the leadership of our Charter President, Leo Suwan Gomez, and supported by Charter Secretary Leo Sachini D Silva and Charter Treasurer Leo Tinasha Mendis, the Leo Club of Negombo Catamaran swiftly rose to prominence. Even in its founding year, the club's dedication and excellence were recognized through prestigious accolades at the Annual District Conference, setting a firm foundation for the years to come.

The legacy of excellence continued through the tenures of our succeeding presidents:

- Leo Lion Joseph Ashan (2020/2021)
- Leo Lion Chanuka Wijeweera (2021/2022)
- Leo Ameash Dimantha (2022/2023)
- Leo Lion Shenal Tissera (2023/2024)
- Leo Lion Adithya Weerasinghe, PFLM (2024/2025)

Under their visionary leadership, the club reached new heights expanding its impact, fostering leadership, and driving meaningful change in the community and beyond. Each president played a pivotal role in nurturing the spirit of Leoism and strengthening the club's presence at both district and multiple district levels.

A defining moment in our club's journey came at the 20th Annual Multiple District Conference, where we proudly etched our name in history. 23.MESSAGE FROM THE MULTIPLE DISTRICT PRESIDENT

Strive to Thrive

In a world where young people are so frequently underestimated, Sri Lanka's Leo Movement is redefining the narrative. As a force to be reckoned with of over 220 clubs working in 12 dynamic districts, we're not just developing leaders, we're developing changemakers for the next generation.

It's not an era for the normal. It's an era of reinvention.

Our clubs are moving into the future as positive leaders. We don't wait for opportunities to come to us, we create them. We don't shy away from problems, we seek out, experiment, and ignite action. Leos of today are visionaries, not volunteers; builders of change, not merely agents of service.

At the heart of this transformation is our passion for education. With one of the most aggressive orientation objectives in Leo history, over 660 impactful sessions, we are preparing every Leo to understand the "why" of their doing. Education is our compass, and service is our way.

But this year, good leadership will not be determined by events, good leadership will be determined by systems. By building systems that endure beyond terms, giving clubs the power to lead on their own, and creating leaders who can carry this movement forward without interruption, we are laying foundations, not merely adding foliage.

Our movement must be heard, too, and outside of our borders. This year marks a turn toward international visibility. With recognitions worldwide, competitive programs, and on-line awareness, we desire the Leo badge to be worn not just with pride, but with prestige.

Visibility matters. From the smallest project in a village to the largest district project, the impact of our work must find the world. And more importantly, it must find the people we serve, with stories that inspire and actions that mobilize.

What we build this year is not for us. It is a blueprint for the future of the Leo Movement, one that is bolder, wiser, and more vocal in intent.

Together, let's lead with heart, serve with purpose, and rise with togetherness.

Strive to Thrive

- Integrate the new member into an existing committee.
- Invite the new member to an informal social gathering with the officers of the club.
- The membership chairperson should ensure that the new member receives proper orientation to the Leo Club Program and a New Member Kit with lapel pin. The membership chairperson should be willing to answer all questions and should offer to accompany the new member to the first few meetings.
- Whenever a Leo moves to another location, officers should encourage that member to join the local Leo club. If a Leo club does not exist, the officer should encourage the member to speak to a local Lions club about sponsoring a Leo club. The future of every Leo club depends on current Leo officers and members. When the Leos work together, recruiting and motivating new members provides club growth. Assuring the continued existence of a club is a valuable service that Leos can perform for their community
