MESSAGE FROM CLUB ASSISTANT TREASURER

Leo Sheshani Fernando
As Leos, our primary goal is to actively serve our community while refining our leadership skills. I feel privileged to be part of this remarkable organization and am deeply thankful for the trust vested in me as Assistant Treasurer for the 2024-2025 term. I appreciate the steadfast support and confidence extended to me. In my role, I've witnessed firsthand the commitment and hard work that define the Negombo Catamaran Leo Club, evident in every project we undertake to uphold excellence and serve our community. This newsletter highlights the significant achievements we've accomplished this year. I extend heartfelt gratitude to all Leos and supporters whose contributions have been instrumental in our success. Together, we will continue striving for excellence and creating a lasting impact.

MESSAGE FROM ASSISTANT PROJECT CHAIRPERSON

I am excited to step into the role of Assistant Project Chairperson and work alongside such a dedicated group. Together, we will continue to drive our initiatives forward, ensuring every project is executed with excellence and precision. My focus will be on fostering collaboration, enhancing communication, and providing support wherever needed. I am eager to contribute to our collective success and welcome any ideas or feedback that can help us achieve our goals. Let's make this year our most productive yet!

Looking forward to working with all of you.

Best regards,

Rajinda Yehan
Assistant Project Chairperson

COASTAL LOGS

SPOOKZILLA

The goal of Spookzilla is to create a fun and exciting Halloween event for everyone to enjoy. It brings the community together with activities like costume contests, games, and music, all while celebrating Halloween. The event gives people a chance to show off their creativity, meet new people, and have a great time. It also aims to inspire community spirit, support local talent, and create opportunities for meaningful social interactions.

BAW YALU

The "Baw Yalu" project aims to help stray dogs at Dammindaramaya Temple by giving them regular food and basic medical care. The monks try to care for the dogs with their own money, but it isn’t enough to feed over 70 dogs. The goal of the project is to reduce their suffering, improve their health, make the area safer, and encourage kindness and responsibility in the community. It also helps prevent the spread of diseases.

Jingle Roar - Audition

The Lions and Leos of District 306B1 hosted a Christmas Carol competition, "Jingle Roar," on November 19th at the Cardinal Cooray Auditorium in Negombo. The event brought together local talent to celebrate the holiday season through music and community spirit. The auditorium provided the perfect setting, with its great facilities creating a festive atmosphere for both participants and the audience. The competition aimed to uplift and showcase the talents of the community while spreading joy and encouraging creativity. It was a successful and inspiring evening that reflected the true spirit of Christmas, leaving everyone with happy memories.

Mass for departed lions

A holy mass was held at the church to pray for the departed lions, who have left us. After the mass, a group of people, who call themselves "lions," distributed dry food to those in need. These kind-hearted people wanted to help others, especially those struggling with hunger. They shared the food with everyone who came to receive it. The event was a reminder of the importance of helping others, showing kindness, and supporting our community. The day ended with a sense of peace and gratitude, as people felt the warmth of both faith and charity.

Lions Family Outing

The Lions family went on a fun outing together. They decided to visit a local park to enjoy the day. Everyone brought their own snacks, and they had a picnic under the trees. Some played games like soccer, while others went for a walk around the park. The children laughed and ran, while the adults sat and talked. It was a perfect day to relax and enjoy each other's company. As the sun began to set, the family gathered for a group photo to remember the special day. The outing brought everyone closer and made them feel happy and united.
